

Medieval Season at Dover Castle

Saturday 20 - Friday 26 July

10am - 5pm

Join us at Dover Castle every day of the summer holidays to learn what life was like in medieval times. From sword schools to medieval fun and games, there will be a different activity each week for children to enjoy.

This Week:

Learn how the courageous Earl of Kent, Hubert de Burgh, defended Dover Castle in 1216 with incredible siege tactics! Join up and train to be a soldier with our siege combat experts About Time!

- 11.00am Dynamic Duelling: Come and learn the artistry behind medieval warfare. From siege tactics to one-on-one combat, specialised sword masters demonstrate how a fight comes together.
- 12.00pm Call to Arms: Do you have what it takes to defend a castle under siege? Both children and a select group of adults will get their opportunity to learn from sword masters the beginnings of being a soldier in the medieval age.
- 1.30pm Dynamic Duelling: Another chance to learn the artistry behind medieval warfare. From siege tactics to one-on-one combat, specialised sword masters demonstrate again how a fight comes together.
- 2.30pm Call to Arms: How would you defend a castle under siege? Another chance for both children and a select group of adults to learn from sword masters the beginnings of being a soldier in the medieval age.
- 3.45pm Dynamic Duelling: Your last chance to learn the artistry behind medieval warfare. From siege tactics to one-on-one combat, specialised sword masters demonstrate how a fight comes together

The event is located on Peverell's Lawn, number 21 on your site map. Children must be always accompanied by an adult

Visit english-heritage.org.uk/events or call 0370 333 1183