

LOTS TO DO

KEY TO SITE

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1 Entrance, tickets and shop  | 8 Crypt                                       |
| 2 Visitor Centre and 1066: the Battle for England exhibition        | 9 Site of abbey church and high altar         |
| 3 Gatehouse exhibition, Discovery Room and rooftop viewing platform | 10 Cloister                                   |
| 4 Undercrofts   | 11 Abbot's great hall, by tour only in August |
| 5 Latrine block   | 12 Precinct wall                              |
| 6 Dormitory range with novices' chamber and common room             | 13 Dairy and icehouse                         |
| 7 Dormitory range rooftop   | 14 Walled garden                              |

The Battlefield Walk

- Full tour – with sculpture trail
50-60 minutes over variable terrain
- Short tour
15-20 minutes
- Easy route (some steps)
40-50 minutes
- Alternative accessible route to high altar site

Sturdy footwear is recommended for the full tour.

Facilities

- |   |                                   |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| ShopGuidebooks are available to buy at the shop                         | Toiletswith accessible toilet |
| Parking   | Picnic area                       |
| CaféLight lunches and refreshments.High chairs available on request | Play area                         |

ACCESS INFORMATION

- An access route is identified on the site signage. Electric wheelchairs may be available from the shop on request.
- Hearing loops are available for use with the audio tours.
- If you need information, please ask a member of staff.
- Audio tours are available in English for adult, family and the visually impaired, also available in Dutch, French, German, Japanese and Spanish. Multimedia guide available in gatehouse exhibition
- Dogs are welcome on leads throughout the site. Please take care during the lambing season. Dog water bowls are located by cafe and shop.