

Medieval Season at Battle Abbey

Saturday 10 August to Friday 16 August
Times 10am – 5pm

Join us at Battle Abbey during the summer holidays to learn what life was like in medieval times. From medieval archaeology to dancing, and rulers to peasants there will be different activities each week for children to take part in.

This Week:

Monkopoly returns to Battle Abbey this week with Ancient Wisdom! Find out how you'd do during Henry VIII's Reformation, learn about what goes into designing castles, and discover what a knight might wear.

11:30: Armour Show – Come and find out the exciting story behind why armour changed, right through from 1066 to the English Civil War!

12:30: Castle Building – Learn the story of Castles through pictures and models in a fun family show that guarantees to help you tell the difference between your drawbridge and your dungeon.

13:30: Monkopoly - How will you do in Monkopoly? A medieval spin on the popular game. Race against the clock and rip down Abbeys for the money, just like Henry VIII did in the past!

14:30: Armour Show – If you missed the show at 11:30, not to worry, we'll be doing it all over again!

15:30: Castle Building – Another chance to get to grips with Medieval Castles.

SAFETY NOTICE: Children must be always accompanied by an adult
