

Medieval Season at Eltham Palace

Saturday 27 July to Friday 2 August

Times 10am – 5pm

Join us at Eltham Palace during the summer holidays to learn what life was like in medieval times. From sword school to medieval archaeology, and rulers to peasants there will be different activities each week for children to take part in.

This Week:

This week, come and listen to medieval tales from Quill and Inking

The Doom of Laird Soulis

Soulis, with a claim to the throne of Scotland, makes an enemy of just about everyone. Why is it then that nobody can seemingly defeat him, and that he can apparently now use magic? More disturbingly, what is in the chest that he keeps guarded so closely?

11am and 2.30pm

That's Not Fairy Nice!

Fairytales have changed a lot over the years. Come explore how folklore has developed and how fairies used to be feared by common folk, and not without reason!

12pm and 3.30pm

The Tale of Sir Walter the Bold!

An ancient cave, rumoured to have treasure in it, is guarded by magic. That, however, is surely superstitious nonsense. Sir Walter decides he will enter the cave and see what is there, ending the discussion once and for all!

1pm

All children must be supervised by an adult when taking part in these activities
The event is located on the South Lawn
